Polley Dies After Bout With Cancer

by LEE ANN MACKULIN

Antioch Community High School Supt. Warren Polley died June 18 at 6:30 a.m. in Victory Memorial Hospital after a long struggle with cancer. He was admitted June 11 for treatment.

Polley, 63, was diagnosed in August as having cancer of the colon but continued to stay active in ACHS affairs.

In an interview June 14, Polley appeared comfortable.

"They're taking very good care of me here. I'm getting a lot of relief. I'm really comfortable and if I'm not they make me comfortable," he said.

Only recently did ACHS Assistant Administrator Gary Allen, officially to take over as superintendent next month, begin making decisions.

"I told Mr. Allen he would have to prepare. He and the staff are making decisions now," said Polley.

"I have been in charge for a few weeks now. Had he (Polley) not been ill I wouldn't have taken over yet," said Allen.

In looking back on the job Polley has done and ahead to hopes of matching it, Allen said,

"The key thing is this: In all of the time I've known Warren, all of the decisions he has made he has always had the kids in mind. That has always impressed me. The kids come first. 'The school's for the kids' is his favorite saying."

"One of the most important things we can do in life is take kids when they're young and help them through. They'll be making the decisions for us one day," said Polley.

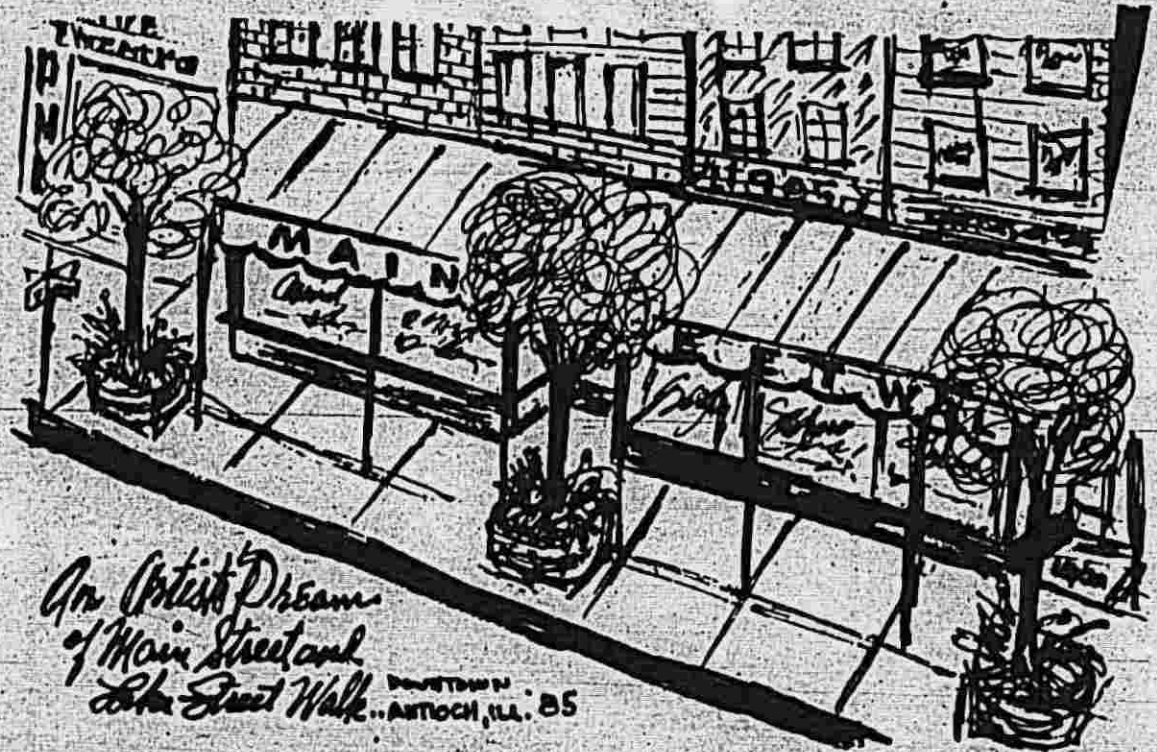

"I've always had the highest regard for Mr. Polley, said Mayor Raymond Toft. "We're sure going to miss him on the Redevelopment Commission. He took a very active part. He was very well liked," said Toft.

A retirement reception recently held for Polley played host to many friends and co-workers wishing him well. He was deeply touched.

Polley devoted 37 years of service to the education of the students at ACHS as a Business Education Teacher, Sophomore Basketball Coach, Business Education Dept. Chairman, Audio Visual Coordinator, Guidance Counselor, Dean of Boys, Athletic Director, Asst. Principal, Asst. Superintendent and Superintendent.

"People stood in line for an hour just to say hi to me. Some people I hadn't seen for years came to renew acquaintance," he said.

For funeral arrangements contact Strang Funeral Home at 395-4000.

Proposed Face Lift

A presentation given by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry June 26, will unveil the revitalization plans set for the village. The above is an artist's rendition of the proposed plan. The presentation will be at Harbor Ridge Country Club at 7 p.m. The State Bank of Antioch, The First National Bank and the Bank of Waukegan will give complimentary cocktails to all in attendance.

Friends Stand By Kelly, Investigation Continues

By LEE ANN MACKULIN
AND GLORIA DAVIS

Friends and business associates of Woodruff (Woody) Kelly in Antioch claim they do not believe that Kelly, whose disappearance has brought about a federal and state investigation of his investment companies, would abscond with other people's money.

Calling him "a pillar of the community," and "the straightest man I ever met," a former business associate of Kelly's came to Lakeland Newspapers concerned by all the articles running even in the Chicago papers that intimate Kelly took off with his investors' cash.

"First of all he wouldn't do that to his wife and family and anyone that knows Ann (Kelly's wife) would know that she wouldn't allow such a thing if she knew about it," he said.

The gentleman asked the paper to keep his name out of the story for legal reasons.

The little known history of Kelly before he appeared on the Antioch scene about nine years ago, and the fact that he seems to have made a lot of money very fast has added fuel to the speculation that Kelly faked his drowning because of financial troubles.

Kelly's former associate said that he believes that Kelly, who "was out of shape and had high blood pressure" may have slipped while going from deck to deck, fallen overboard and was unable to get back to the boat. He added that there was a possibility of Kelly suffering a heart attack in his condition.

He said that Kelly came from money, his father being the owner of Mellon Banks, one of the largest banking concerns in the southern part of the country.

He added that Kelly had been in the U. S. Navy for about nine years when his son came down with leukemia which the Navy would not treat so he left the service.

"He came here and went into the insurance business, working 24 hours a day until he made enough money to make some good investments," he said.

He added that underwriting the insurance policy for the City of Waukegan was part of that success.

He said he knew nothing about the charge of illegally selling securities and he did admit that it was unlike Kelly to take a boat out alone and be without a life preserver at least close at hand.

The same amount of life preservers were on the boat as had been on it when it left Kenosha Harbor. The Coast Guard also said that there was no sign of a struggle having had taken place on the boat.

The former business associate added that it was possible that some of the people that worked for Kelly "might have done something illegal, but it would have been done without his knowledge, he has been ripped off by employees before."

Kelly disappeared on June 8, somewhere between Kenosha Harbor and Waukegan Harbor, while "trying out" a boat he reportedly intended to buy for his charter boat company operating out of Waukegan.

Woodland Investment Co. in Gurnee, headed by Kelly was ordered closed

Origin Of Area Fires Determined

The origin of two Antioch fires June 8, which totaled $20,000 damage, have been determined, according to Chief Investigator of the Antioch Fire Dept. Wayne Parthun.

Horst Gebaur, of 40231 Bell Drive, in East Loon Lake Subdivision, admitted to starting the fire that caused $15,000 damage to his home, according to Deputy Curt Corsi of the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. Gebaur used Kerosene and a match to start the fire in several places. No one was in the house at the time.

"He is a mentally disturbed person who decided to start his own house on fire. When the fire dept. arrived, he was standing in the driveway with his suitcase and no shoes on

When we were talking to him at the scene he was emotionally unstable," said Corsi.

No criminal charges have been made. Technically, he could have been charged with disorderly conduct, said Corsi.

"You're allowed to burn down your own house," he said.

A second fire June 8, which destroyed two sheds at the John Steele residence, 40720 Rte. 83, was found to be set by "several juveniles playing with matches," said Corsi. The offenders were between seven and 13 years of age.

The sheds were totaled, causing $5,000 damage.

New Packaging Concern Running 6 Days A Week

Antioch's newest industry, Great Midwestern Packaging Corp., is in its second week of operations with Swiss engineers setting up "world's first" packing machine that will be unique in the industry.

Great Midwestern has 70 persons working in the plant at 702 Anita Ave., according to Ronald Wright, president of the corporation and chief executive officer of the firm founded three years ago in North Chicago.

The company serves manufacturers from a number of fields, including food, candy, condiments, dairy and hardware. Products will be shipped to Antioch for packaging in a variety of manners.

Great Midwestern is a specialist in shrink wrapping and blister packaging. The first run in the new Antioch plant, starting June 10, has been for a candy concern.

Wright said operations are running on a 24-hour, six-day schedule.

The Swiss engineers are setting up a newly invented food dispenser packager that should be in production in two to three weeks. Great Midwestern already has ordered two more of the machines. A company spokesman described the packages as being replacements for "those messy ketchup and mustard dispensers you get in the fast food restaurants."

Great Midwestern purchased the Antioch plant and adjoining 10 acres from Mr. and Mrs. Everette Oftedahl, long-time Antioch industrialists who put up the building on speculation.

Announcing...

BANK of WAUKEGAN's New LEASING Department

If your company is expanding or replacing equipment, consider LEASING. With today's high prices, many astute business people are using LEASING as a viable alternative to outright ownership. We can help!! Let us solve your equipment financing problems.

BANK OF WAUKEGAN President, Charles E. Ofenloch, answers your LEASING questions.

CHARLES F. OFENLOCH

Are there any financial advantages to LEASING equipment?

"Yes there are. First of all, you don't need a downpayment since you get the equivalent of 100% financing. Also, you're guaranteed a fixed rental payment for the entire term of the LEASE even if interest rates increase in the future. In addition, those monthly rental payments will usually be less than if you were purchasing the equipment, and that will help improve your cash flow."

Can LEASING solve the problem of limited working capital?

"With LEASING, you buy the use of the equipment, not the equipment itself. Thus, your capital can be conserved for other needs."

Is there a tax advantage to LEASING?

"If your rental payments are treated as fully tax deductible expenses, you pay for the equipment use out of pre-tax income instead of reducing your profit."

Can LEASING provide a hedge against obsolescence and inflation?

"It sure can. With today's rapidly changing technology, equipment you purchase can become obsolete before it's even paid for. LEASING makes it easy to update your equipment and stay competitive. Also, LEASES are paid with future dollars. Since the terms are set, you're insured against a possible decrease in value due to inflation."

How long is the typical LEASE?

"There is a good bit of flexibility, but the normal LEASE period is 5 years. The only limits are those imposed by IRS restrictions and the economic life of the equipment."

What happens at the end of the LEASE period?

"You can return the equipment with no further obligation; you can continue to LEASE the equipment; you can LEASE newer, updated equipment; or, you can negotiate to purchase the equipment. You make the choice."

For additional information regarding LEASING from the Bank of Waukegan, contact our LEASING specialists, John Crim or Roy Clark, at (312) 244-6000.

Township Chief Likes Venita's Credentials

Venita McConnel has received a strong endorsement from one of Lake County's most powerful Republican precinct committeeman in her campaign for the GOP nomination for Lake County Clerk.

E.A. "Ike" Lusk, who describes himself as "78 years young," is supporting McConnel's candidacy in next spring's primary election. He has been a party committeeman for over 30 years, and Elia Twp. chairman for 16 years.

Lusk has communicated to Lakeland Newspapers his reasons for supporting McConnel: "First, she has many years of practical experience in managing an office effectively, both in business and in government. Second, she has a keen sense of being a team player, and never asks more of anyone that she is willing to do herself."

Committeeman Lusk continued, "Third, she is well known in the Republican party as being a hard worker for the party and is highly respected by all. Fourth, Venita is the type of gal that if there was turmoil in the office or in any situation, she would rise above the strife and keep things running smoothly so that no one would even know a problem existed, and at the same time, work out whatever problem she was faced with at that time. Fifth, she is loyal to what and who she believes in. All together it adds up to Venita McConnel. She is someone the Republican Party can be proud of as our choice for Lake County Clerk."

Railroad Museum Celebrates 5 Years

July 4th, the Illinois Railway Museum celebrates the fifth anniversary of trolley loop operations with their annual Trolley Pageant.

The pageant highlight will be a parade, at 3 p.m., with over 25 trolley, street and interurban cars. This is the largest one-day operation of antique electric cars in the Midwest or possibly the country.

The parade will display streetcars that ran in Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Cleveland and Philadelphia. There will also be electric interurbans that ran on the systems that connected Chicago to Milwaukee, South Bend and the Fox River Valley towns of Aurora, Geneva, St. Charles and Elgin.

The 56 acre grounds open at 11 a.m. and visitors are welcome to use the picnic facilities and explore the collection of equipment, which includes more than 200 cars and locomotives, many stored on over a mile of track within five protective car barns.

Admission to the museum is $4.50 for adults, $2.25 for children on weekends, $3.50 and $1.50 weekdays. The admission entitles visitors to unlimited rides on equipment operating that day. Groups are welcome and a group rate is available.

Upcoming events include Steam Week, Aug. 4-11, when steam-trains will run hourly each weekday.

The museum is located in Union, six miles northwest of the U.S. 20 Marengo exit of the I-90 Northwest Tollway. Dial recorded message (312) 262-2266.

Rate 'Stitch In Snow' As Delightful Story

by P. SHAFFER

Lake Villa Dist. Library

"Stitch in Snow" by Anne McCaffrey is the story of Dana Jane Lovell, a successful author of children's books.

A resident of Ireland, Dana arrives in the United States to begin a promotional tour of her books. She also looks forward to spending time with her son, now a student at a mid-western college.

Dana's life is a busy and full one, but she misses the warmth, love and companionship of a man. Her husband, Ray, has been dead for many years and her son is busy living his own life.

Knitting becomes the solace she turns to when life is empty. The tour is frantic and when Dana arrives in Denver with a blizzard about to close the airport, she meets another stranded traveler, Dan Lowell, a very attractive and interesting man.

Snowbound and isolated from the pressures of their busy lives, Dan and Dana share a special and magical weekend. When the snow finally ends, Dana continues her tour, not realizing that Dan is in serious trouble.

When Dana returns to Denver to help Dan, she finds that their weekend interlude has deepened to mutual caring and concern.

How they resolve Dan's problems and their own relationship makes a delightful story of unexpected love and suspense.

Lake County Museum Fete Two Exhibits

The Lake County Museum has unveiled two new exhibits. Both exhibits highlight examples of the art-deco style evident in the Curt Teich postcard collection and other collection components from the museum.

The art deco style was popular in this country during the 1920's and 1930's. The style is characterized by rectilinear and geometric shapes rather than the curvilinear, softer art nouveau style that was popular a bit earlier.

One exhibit includes postcards, advertising pamphlets and brochures from the Curt Teich postcard collection as well as photographs of the art deco style architecture from Lake County. Also included are samples from the Museum's jewelry collection.

The second exhibit consists of a beautiful beaded dress from the 1920's, a feathered hat, a beaded bag and black satin shoes. All are from the museum's costume and fashion accessory collections.

Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. President Donald Strenger praised the work of museum staff members. "Katherine Hamilton-Smith, Hans Gill, Thelma Shanks and Janet Gallimore-Smith are to be commended for their fine presentations of the art deco style as found in the museum's collections.

The Curt Teich postcard collection has enhanced the museum's photo and graphics collections and the clothing, fashion accessory and textile collections are among the museum's finest holdings.

The exhibits will be available for viewing until September. The Lake County Museum is located on Rte. 176, seven and one-half miles west of Mundelein in the Lakewood Forest Preserve.

Underwriters Assn.

The Lake County Life Underwriters Assn. will be holding its June meeting at the Northern Chalet Restaurant in Libertyville at noon on Friday, June 21. The guest speaker will be James R. Filipek, CLU.

Theater Names Staff

The staff members for Greasepaint & Spotlights' summer theatre camp were recently announced by Terrie Snell, the school's director.

They are: Kelly Crisman who is teaching acting and directing the two shows campers will produce; Jim Snell, music instructor; Pam Westfall, dance instructor and Sue Shore, costume design and set construction.

"This is the fifth year the theatre camp has been held," said Snell, "and my staff is eager to make this summer's sessions the best yet."

Greasepaint & Spotlights summer theatre camp is a three week, hands-on experience, for students in grades one through eight. The format enables campers to learn about all aspects of theatre production and then apply what they learn by producing a one-act musical.

Openings are still available for Session B, which runs from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., Monday, July 15 through Friday, Aug. 2. For more information, call Greasepaint & Spotlights at (312) 680-8686.

Singers Perform

John Ross of Wauconda, director of The Serendipity Singers, recently took the group to Washington, D.C. to perform at the American Cancer Fund Ball. He was asked to do this performance by Genie Francis (Laura on "General Hospital"), who saw The Serendipity Singers perform in St. Louis.

Ross and The Serendipity Singers are now in Hollywood filming a national commercial for Best Western Hotels. Their second series is now on every Saturday night on SPN Network.

The Serendipity Singers will be doing a "Concert Under The Stars" at Hawthorne Center on Thursday evening, July 18. This is a free concert and everyone is welcome.

Marriott's 'Chorus Line' Deserves Long Hit Run

by GLORIA DAVIS

The powers that be at the Marriott Lincolnshire Theatre have planned a four-month visit for their production of "A Chorus Line", presently premiering at the north suburban theater.

If all audiences react as the one did the night this reviewer attended (a standing ovation), Marriott, not only has a smash hit on its hands, but that stay might have to be extended.

While I'm on the audience reaction bit, might I chide talented director, Dominic Missimi (or whomever), for not having the thrilling cast prepared for curtain calls when the applause is as thunderous as it was when I attended.

As it was, the audience was left unrecognized.

Up until Marriott's performance, this reviewer found herself numbered among the minority of theater-goers that actually had the nerve to say that "the multi-award winning, longest running Broadway musical" left her cold.

Besides the fact that "Marriott and Company" simply turns in the usual fantastic production, I can only attribute my enjoyment of this version to the intimate atmosphere of the theater in-the-round that seems to pull the audience right into the play.

This fact seems even more necessary for "Chorus" because the stage is constantly concerned with the life story of just one person.

I feel in the original production each member of the chorus line in turn was dwarfed by the broader scope of the presidium premise.

The fact that "The Dance" has never enjoyed greater popularity is another contributing factor to the long-lasting acceptance of "Chorus," a story based on love of "The Dance."

Kary Walker's production features a cast particularly strong in all three basic theatrical departments, dancing, singing and acting.

To find such a large cast of high-caliber dancers, that are high-caliber singers, who also do a good job in the acting department is no mean feat for any casting director (which by the way is also the main plot of the show) and Marriott's staff really does a fine job of that in this one.

As a whole this chorus line is dynamite and separately they each explode in their individual roles.

Laurie Stephenson, Todd Heughens, Kenny Ingram and Don Franklin, all standouts in a cast of standouts.

Let those plaudits take nothing away from Leslie Trayer, Dana Sweeney, Robyn Peterman, Michelle Kelly and William Akey who also turn in performances above and beyond what their roles call for.

Kevin Site's musical direction and the sounds that Candace Tovar brings her Broadway expertise to the role of Cassie, stopping the show with her solo dance, "Music And The Mirror".

Lucky Linda Leonard gets the show's best number, "What I Did For Love," and she handles it well.

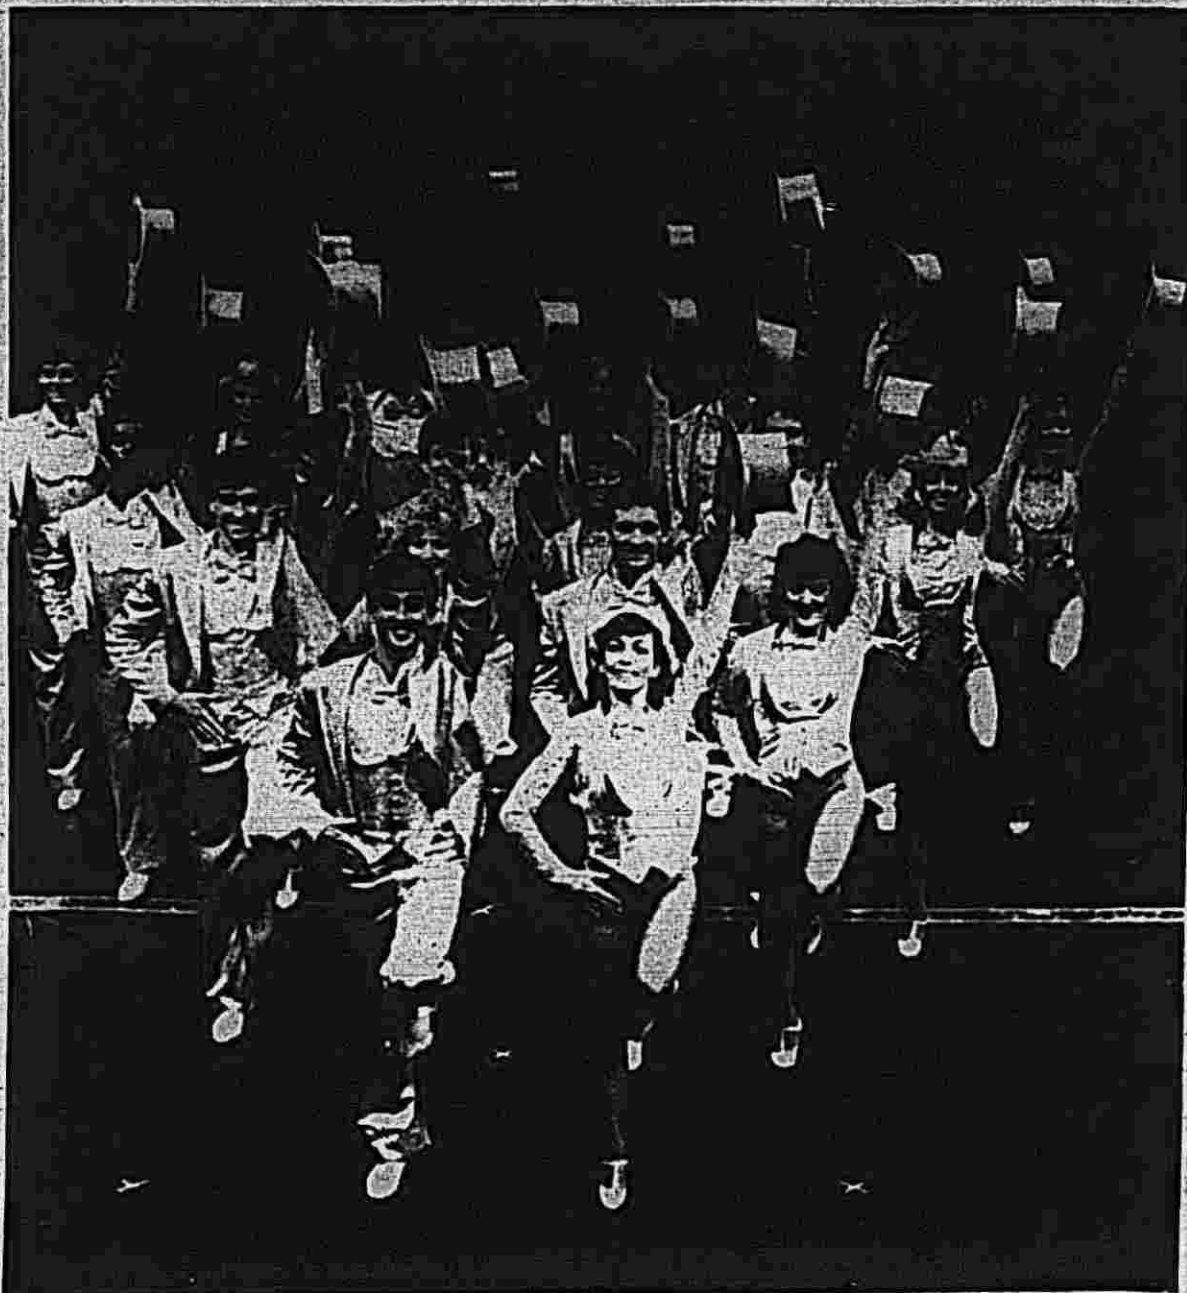

Joan Schwenk does a little scene stealing in the role of Kristine (aided by Jordon Leeds' fine voice) in another great number "Sing".

Ray Frewin is perfect as the choreographer, and plaudits go to Judith Smith, Beverly Anne Britton, emanate from the orchestra's booth are in keeping with the other high standards of the show.

My only quarrel is with the impact of this version of the finale. Don't get me wrong, I enjoyed it thoroughly, but there was something missing and I'm not quite sure what it was.

Maybe the dancers didn't have quite enough room to execute the wide-scoped dance number as choreographed. Or maybe those wonderful third row seats were not the best bases for viewing this number.

Bank of Waukegan is expanding its service and facilities with the opening of a new leasing department.

President Charles E. Ofenloch announced that John Crim and Roy Clark will be handling business and commercial leasing Ofenloch said that leasing has become an important alternative to ownership of equipment.

He pointed out that leasing eases capital needs and tax advantages and provides flexibility in dealing with today's problems of rapid obsolescence and inflation.

Crim and Clark typically will be talking about five year leases, the standard period for business and industry. At the conclusion of the lease period, equipment can be replaced or users can arrange a purchase.

The great fishermen are back in town. And do they have BIG stories to tell! Joe Sterbenz and Bernie Gutowski are all nice and tan and do have a few mosquito bites, from their Canadian fishing trip. The word is that their wives had a nice little get a way as well. What's good for the goose is good for the gander, but the ganders didn't go fishing and they admit it.

Is everyone ready for that fun Fireman's Dance? Don't forget June 29 at the fire station and be sure to support your firemen by buying tickets. They are out there selling now so be sure to catch a fireman and donate.

Have you seen the beautification at the Old Lower Grade School. They are still working away on it but you can see how lovely it is going to be. Our town is looking better all the time and of course our flags have an added effect. We are fortunate to have a community based on pride and respect for its appearance. Lets all pull together and keep up the good work. I have also seen a young good looking fellow cleaning up the streets and sidewalks in town. He would like everyone to try to use the new garbage containers that you see about town. It would make his job a lot easier.

Did you take Dad out for Sunday Brunch? I found another great place for breakfast. Struggles has a fantastic Sunday Brunch. It has a great variety of food and is reasonably priced. They even make you fresh eggs just the way you like them. You have got to try it if you haven't already.

Happy Birthday greetings go out to Mary Mihovilovich. Is it true you treated yourself on your birthday with 11 new pair of shoes? Next time you see her be sure to check her feet.

following an investigation of his securities department lead by Sec. of State Jim Edgar. The probe revealed irregularities in the handling of millions of dollars in investor funds.

Edgar said as many as 200 people may have invested money with the company.

Two days before the disappearance, Edgar issued a Temporary Order of Prohibition against Kelly, as a result of a complaint by a group of Wisconsin investors who purchased $480,000 in securities.

Following his disappearance, State's Atty. Fred Foreman executed a search warrant and seized business records and files. Foreman said that his office is primarily interested in the disappearance and determining whether or not foul play was involved.

He added that some Wisconsin investors (Kelly lived in Salem) had instituted lawsuits and many other investors have called his office to be told that they would have to institute civil action.

Kelly at present is listed as a missing person with the state's attorney's office.

"With the assistance of the Lake County State's Attorney and the Gurnee Police Dept., we were able to seize over 18 cases of documents in Kelly's office. I'm confident that once we're able to get through all the records, we'll have a much clearer picture of just what Mr. Kelly was doing," said Edgar.

Edgar said that investigations found that Kelly's firm was violating the Illinois securities law in that Kelly failed to register securities sold by Woodland and had failed to return investor funds upon demand.

"Our priority now is to find out what happened to investor money and what we can do now to protect investor interests," said Edgar.

Kelly also heads a company in Antioch and one in Skokie.

Securities investigators will continue working to catalogue and analyze the voluminous records seized. The FBI and U.S. Attorney Anton R. Valukas Jr. have also entered the investigation.

Jaycees, Parks See Safety Success

Chairman Frank Wojcikiewicz was delighted with the turnout. He also wished to recognize the effort and cooperation of the Dept. of Conservation, Illinois Division of Waterways and Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 6-3, all of which supplied instructors for the course.

Boater Safety is one of a series of safety courses sponsored by the Jaycees and Parks and Recreation. Other classes in the series include Hunter Safety, Snowmobile Safety and Trapper Education.

Fingerprints May Help ID Children

Many area young people were fingerprinted in the Brook Room at the State Bank of Antioch. The 161 subjects were not the result of a crackdown on kiddie crime but an identification program run by the Antioch Jaycees in conjunction with the Antioch Police Dept. and the Lake County Sheriff's Office. The program is intended to aid in the identification of lost, kidnapped and runaway children.

In addition, the Jaycees also donated a Polaroid Land Camera to the Sheriff's Police to assist them with their 'I Search' Program. The program makes use of photos rather than fingerprints. Sheriff Micky Babcox was pleased with the donation and thanked Project Chairman Frank Wojcikiewicz for a successful program.

Prenatal Exercise

Requests Support

Chain of Lakes-Fox River Waterway Management Agency Board Members and area legislators recently met with Governor Thompson in Springfield requesting state support for the new Waterway Management Agency. Agency Members Meet With Gov. Thompson

Members of the Chain of Lakes-Fox River Waterway Management Agency's Board met recently with Gov. James Thompson and Chain of Lakes-Fox River area legislators to work for state support for the new Waterway Management Agency.

The meeting took place in Springfield in the governor's office in the Capitol Building. Chairman John Soffiatti and Board Member Roy Gundelach represented the newly elected board at the meeting.

The purpose of the meeting was to press for support from the governor's office for an appropriation of $754,000 from the boat fund to support the operation of the newly formed agency this year.

In addition, the governor's 1986 budget already includes funds that will be reappropriated from this year's budget for $500,000 for dredging site acquisition and preparation. Agency board members and area legislators also asked for consideration for the Chain of Lakes-Fox River area in the governor's proposed "Build Illinois" Program.

Board members John Soffiatti and Roy Gundelach, along with the Chain of Lakes-Fox River area legislators, expressed satisfaction with the Governor's positive reaction to their requests.

On behalf of the area legislators, Senator Jack Schaffer (R-McHenry County), who arranged the meeting, expressed the feeling that the Governor shared their support and enthusiasm for the new Agency.

"With the amount of aid we are working to get through the general assembly and to the governor's desk, I believe the agency can get off to a good start and begin its important mission of preserving and improving one of Illinois' important waterway systems," commented Senator Schaffer.

In addition to meeting with Gov. Thompson, the Agency Board members had an opportunity to meet with Donald R. Vonnahme, director of the division of water resources, dept. of transportation and with Director, Michael Witte, department of conservation, to establish working relationships with two of the important state agencies that the Waterway Management Agency will deal with.

It's sad.
We can't take it for granted anymore that our children will make it to school, or the store, or the movies, and back.
We can't be sure it's safe for them to play in the park, or the schoolyard, or even the front yard, alone.

Until we can again, until they're finally out of danger, we're turning every Edison employee into family. To give kids in trouble or lost someone to turn to, someone who cares, when there's no police officer close by.

It's not a solution to the problem by any means, but it's a start. A team effort that all of us at Commonwealth Edison take very seriously. Especially the hundreds of crews we have working out on the streets.

Your kids can spot our trucks a long way off. When they see that big E in our logo, or the E-team emblem, they'll know they're among friends.

Please, tell 'em to look for us.

Sensible Building Program

If ever voters were between the proverbial rock and a hard place, it is electors in Warren High School district who will pass judgment on a referendum calling for approval of $17.6 million in bonds to replace the school destroyed by an arsonist.

As we see it, voters really don't have much choice, but to approve the measure. The June 29 balloting amounts to a requirement providing for official sanction of the building program that will be paid for by taxpayers who will use the facilities. Defeat of the bonding proposal would be almost unthinkable, probably leading to protracted legal entanglements where the state would have to step in to force the district to issue bonds so that students could be housed in adequate headquarters.

There is scattered opposition to the referendum. We are at a loss as to what dissidents are trying to say. The school was destroyed. Students must be housed. A new school must be built. The only choice open to residents of the district was whether to rebuild in Gurnee or build on acreage owned by the district off Washington St. In a survey taken by the board of education, electors spoke out loudly and clearly in favor of rebuilding in Gurnee.

Critics of the school board's plan to build a 350,000 square foot facility including a swimming pool and an auditorium basically are nitpicking or off base in their opposition. The board has worked hard and long to produce a rebuilding program that will result in a modern physical plant that will provide adequate space for future growth. As for the swimming pool, that's always a school feature that's sure to draw fire. As a practical matter, though, a swimming pool is used by more students and more citizens than any other feature in the school. We feel strongly that a school building should be designed to serve anyone.

Opponents of the school have been creating confusion and uncertainty among voters by grossly inflating the impact of the huge bond issue on individual tax bills. Our understanding is that the impact will be about $200 for the typical home. That's a big jump, to be sure, but how else can you deal with a catastrophe?

Hopefully, sensible citizens will ignore the malcontents and give their stamp of approval to the referendum on what we consider a sensible building program.

Bill Deserves Support

The telecommunications industry is undergoing momentous changes due to deregulation. We still get the familiar humming sound before dialing a telephone call and the call still goes through, but what happens behind-the-scenes is much different than it used to be.

Lawmakers, industry spokesmen and citizens representatives are doing their best to hammer out new legislation that will provide new order in the often chaotic environment surrounding deregulation. More often than not, their efforts are imperfect, but the parties dealing with new telecommunications laws are doing the best they can with extremely complex but important issues.

H.B. 1814, the Universal Telephone Service Protection Law of 1985, is one measure that has shortcomings, but it basically is sound and provides opportunities for the Illinois Legislature to track the impact of new policies. It is deserving of everyone's support.

Amazingly, the bill encompasses all the vital features needed such as recognition that the telecommunications industry is different from other regulated industries, that it permits an orderly transition to competition, provides necessary consumer protection, assures fair competition without disruption of service, and encourages increased efficiency at reduced prices.

The telephone industry needs ground rules, consumers need protection and the Illinois Commerce Commission needs guidance. H.B. 1814 should be enacted into law.

Country Squire's Latest Chapter About Expansion

by BILL SCHROEDER

Congratulations to Chris and Bill Govas who are adding an exciting new chapter to the illustrious life of the Country Squire, for three decades one of Lakeland's top dining spots.

The Govas are breaking ground for a major addition to what originally was the Sears mansion at Rtes. 45 and 120 to house banquet facilities sufficient to seat up to 700 persons. They are so confident that the addition can be constructed on schedule that they're already booking parties for the holiday season.

The banquet section will have a separate entrance and separate parking. The addition will be built in the colonial style that has given the famous restaurant its distinctive touch of hominess and elegance over the years.

Containing approximately 13,000 square feet of space, the banquet wing will represent an investment of more than $1 million.

Politics Of Clerk's Race

The growing support among Republican officeholders and party officials for Venita McConnell's nomination for Lake County Clerk next year is attracting the attention of the local press. On June 7, The News-Sun's "Inside" column contained the following item: "County Board Dist. 4 Rep. Donna-Mae Litwiler of Ingleside finally got her 'LIP' vanity plate this week during a fundraiser for Sec. of State Jim Edgar at the Country House in Antioch. Edgar personally presented her with the plate."

"Inside" continued, "And, speaking of 'The Lip' it doesn't appear Wauconda Village Clerk Venita McConnell is going to roll over and play dead in what is shaping up as a shoot-em-out primary for the GOP nomination to challenge the incumbent Democratic County Clerk Linda Januzzi Hess, next year."

The News-Sun concluded, "McConnel, who may not have Litwiler's countywide name recognition, is quietly garnering support among precinct committeemen and Litwiler's fellow board members. McConnel's latest convert is Forest Preserve Dist. Chairman Donald Strenger of Lake Forest, who joins Dist. 6 Reps. Glenn Miller of Long Grove and Gerald Beyer of Wauconda."

The anticipated McConnel-Litwiler race will be the first Republican primary contest for the county clerk's office in 20 years. The 1966 primary was the last time that the GOP had competition for the party's nomination for county clerk. That year, Truman Gerretsen defeated Robert H. "Mickey" Babcox in the primary. (Currently, Babcox is Lake County sheriff. Donna-Mae Litwiler is Sheriff Babcox's candidate for county clerk.) Gerretsen of Fox Lake was elected Lake County Clerk in 1966, but he lost the office to Democrat Grace Mary Stern of Highland Park by 904 votes in 1970. Twice, Stern was reelected county clerk, defeating Suzie Metzler in 1974 and Helen Amendola in 1978. When Stern vacated the office in 1982, Democrat Linda Hess defeated Republican Harry Thomas for county clerk by 353 votes out of 111,187 ballots cast in the election.

Some GOP leaders believe that a contested primary for the Republican nomination would be healthy for the party. First, it would permit the primary voters to choose the strongest candidate to oppose Democratic incumbent Linda Hess. Second, it would be a good scrimmage before "the Super Bowl" in the 1986 Nov. elections for the Republican precinct committeemen to test their abilities to mobilize votes. Third, the Republicans have had four uncontested primaries for county clerk in order to preserve party unity for the general elections. Yet, the uncontested primary winners lost to the Democratic nominee, including Truman Gerretsen (1970), Suzie Metzler (1974), Helen Amendola (1978) and Harry Thomas (1982). Fourth, the Republicans will be adopting State Rep. John Matjevich's "Rule of Clerk Politics." Matjevich is a Democratic state legislator from North Chicago, who is an important party leader in the Illinois General Assembly. He led the unsuccessful fight for ratification of the E.R.A. amendment in the state legislature. Matjevich once said, "Voters associate the office of clerk with women." No matter who wins the 1986 Republican primary, Hess will have a female opponent unlike the 1982 election. A woman has occupied the county clerk's office for the past fifteen years. In addition, a woman has filled the clerk of the circuit court's position for the last 26 years. Fifth, both McConnel and Litwiler have indicated that they will run in the 1986 Republican primary irrespective of any endorsement decision of the party's central committee. Both candidates claim that they are "in the race to stay."

The board of the Homeowners Organization of Wildwood (HOW) urges the Lake County Forest Preserve to purchase Brae Loch and the adjoining property.

The Wildwood subdivision lies in the patch of extensive development that promises to make our area a high density area.

Concerns about the use of the land in question include an increase in traffic that is already a serious problem, the additional use of groundwater that is dropping at an alarming rate, reducing property values and overburdening schools.

The addition of Brae Loch to the Lake County Forest Preserve property would hold this property for the use of the public and add another improvement to the value of life in this area.

Appropriate Assignment

Antioch councilmen added new stature and importance to the village's Redevelopment Commission, a quasi-official body, by turning over to the commission a sticky zoning question involving a proposal to locate another tavern on main street.

Pure and simple, members of the Redevelopment Commission, who are charged by the village board with the responsibility of revitalizing Antioch's downtown have serious reservations whether another tavern will enhance the community. They might be able to head the tavern off "at the pass" whereas the tavern plan might be able to squeeze through the zoning hurdle on a technicality.

It will be interesting to see what happens in what amounts to an unforeseen role for the Redevelopment Commission. The assignment of studying a sensitive community issue unquestionably adds a new dimension to the commission. In our view, it is an entirely logical and appropriate assignment.

Amputee Progresses With Aid Of Home Therapy

by DONNA DUNCAN

From a wheelchair to a walker: one man's accomplishment.

Teaching a man to walk on his own again after having his leg amputated is a lonely struggle but thanks to the help of Lake County Home Health Care Services, that struggle is made more comforting, knowing that someone understands.

One amputee patient who has progressed from depending on a wheelchair to walking with a straight cane is 75-year-old Jacob Keizer, of Wauconda. Because of his remarkable improvement, his physical therapist, Mary Fossier, of the Lake County Home Health Care Services, has recognized him as an outstanding patient during National Physical Therapy Week June 17-22.

Keizer lost his leg to diabetes in October of 1984 and left the hospital with his new artificial leg last March.

He was seen by a Home Health Care nurse who makes an assessment of his needs around the house such as revamping the bathtub, etc. But in this case, no major changes were needed. She also has made periodic checks on his condition and now visits him once a month to check his blood.

The physical therapist taught him how to keep the remaining part leg clean and properly wrapped inside the prosthesis.

He started out with a wheelchair and advanced to a walker until finally, he is able to walk with a cane.

Getting used to the strange feeling of no sensation in the foot was a difficult task, which took many weeks of training. But Keizer was willing to follow the therapist's instructions and learned to increase his level of walking. "You get a little disappointed but it's remarkable how I (walked with a walker then one day, she said to try a quad (four-legged) cane."

With Keizer, the walker and quad cane became too secure for him so Fossier encouraged him to walk more. Now he is able to walk around his home and he walks around stores.

Because he is a below-the-knee amputee, he has a little more control, Fossier said. But it still takes an adjustment because the lack of sensation causes balance to be off.

Home Health Care is to provide temporary health care for people who just came home from the hospital, people who have a chronic illness or disability or those with a terminal illness. "We find people recover at home faster, it is more cost effective and our program is the only one in Lake County that provides services on a sliding fee scale," Fossier said.

Besides dealing with patients, Home Health care personnel also teach other family members how to handle the patient and provide extra support, making them feel more at ease.

Fossier said Keizer's wife, Ethel, is good for him because, for one, she knows how to cook the right meals.

Keizer has progressed to doing almost 90 percent of what he had been doing before his amputation, which is an accomplishment, Keizer said. "First I came here two times a week, then once a week, now I'm here occasionally. He's really on his own," she said.

His wife agrees. "I think he's doing great." One of the most difficult things she had to handle was the depression her husband was feeling, a common side effect of the amputation. But fortunately, she knew when to be sympathetic and when be firm with him.

"I told him to stop feeling sorry for himself," she said.

Fossier said the couple is easy going and "good for each other." A special goal Fossier has set for Keizer is to be able to walk into the church on his 50th wedding anniversary. This goal perhaps will be realized as the Keizers celebrate their anniversary this weekend in Wauconda.

Home Health Care Services is referred to patients by doctors, friends, discharge planners and social workers at hospitals. Staff members include nurses, physical therapists, speech therapists, occupational therapists, social workers, nutritionists and home health aides.

The cost of the services, based on a sliding fee scale, may be covered by Medicare, Medicaid, Blue Cross/Blue Shield Coordinated Care or private health insurance.

"I wouldn't do the things I'm doing now if it wasn't for her telling me what to do and why," Keizer said.

Recovering and getting stronger takes two. Along with his therapist's guidance, Keizer also needed to be strong-willed. "He realized that this is what's its going to be like," Fossier said.

To make arrangements for Lake County Home Health Care Services, call (312) 689-6711 or (312) 689-6717.

Proclaim Physical Therapy Week

Gov. James R. Thompson has proclaimed June 16-22 as Physical Therapy Week in Illinois. The proclamation cites the contributions of physical therapists to the health of the people of Illinois through preventive, rehabilitative and educational measures in physical therapy.

The observance of Physical Therapy Week in Illinois with the 1985 theme of "Physical Therapy Promotes Healthy Aging," coincides with 1985 National Physical Therapy Week, and the Annual Conference of the American Physical Therapy Assn. (APTA) in New Orleans, Louisiana.

The American Physical Therapy Assn. is a national professional organization representing some 40,000 physical therapists, physical therapist assistants and students throughout the United States. Its goals are to serve its members and the public by increasing the understanding of the physical therapist's role in the health care system and by fostering improvements in physical therapy education, practice and research. The Illinois Chapter of APTA has more than 1,500 members throughout the state.

CLC Trustee Eyes Race

Lake County Democratic Chairman Jay K. Ukena of Waukegan reported that College of Lake County Trustee Richard Bryan is one of two potential candidates "under consideration" for the Democratic nomination for Regional Supt. of Schools in next year's elections.

Some political observers believe that Bryan would be a strong candidate in the 1986 elections. First, Bryan won a countywide election when he unseated veteran incumbent Arthur Katzenmaier in the 1983 CLC board elections. Second, Bryan is a Grayslake resident. Historically, the Regional Supt. of Schools post has been occupied by an educator from western Lake County.

W.C. Petty of Antioch held the position from 1930-1970. James Flood of Gurnee filled the office from 1970-1974. During the past 12 years, William H. "Bill" Thompson of Antioch has been the educational chieftain in Lake County. Supt. Thompson has declared that he will not be a candidate for reelection in 1986. Thompson has endorsed Sybil Yastrow, who has served in the Regional Supt.'s office for the past 10 years. Yastrow doesn't reside in western Lake County.

Third, Rick Bryan is a Warren High School teacher as well as a CLC Trustee. He will campaign as a "classroom candidate," who understands "the educational problems of our school system." Bryan will claim that Yastrow is a professional bureaucrat without the necessary classroom experience to solve the present educational crisis. Fourth, Bryan expects to receive support from PTO organizations.

Bryan advised Lakeland Newspapers that "I am definitely weighing the possibility of fielding a candidacy for Regional Supt. of Schools on the Democratic ticket."

Snap! Kerplunk! It's Part Of Vacation Fun

One of the nicest things about travel is taking pictures of interesting places visited. This allows remaking the trip each time photos are shown. Memories are much stronger when guided by the camera's eye.

The State of Wisconsin Tourism Division offers contest prizes of in-state trips for photos entered in their Tourism Photo Contest. For details, write Box 7970, Madison, Wis. 53707, or phone 1-800-ESCAPES for information. Contestant travelers must visit ching for good picture subjects increases trip appreciation.

If Michigan is on your program, an offbeat July 4th event at Mackinac Island will be The Annual International Stone Skipping and Kerplunking Tournament. Most everyone knows the fun of skipping flat stones. They will appreciate the competition record of 24 stone skips...that breaks into 10 plinkers, followed by 14 short, fast pitter-pats at the end. For information, contact Mary Soper, Michigan Travel Bureau, Box 30226, Lansing, Mich. 48909. Remember to practice, wherever you are and get the arm in shape for this international event...or just be a watcher.

Another four season thought that interests discriminating RVers is locating an attractive place to use when time is available...a nearby home away from home which offers that change of pace so important to counterbalance work-a-day pressures. The Ports of Sullivan Lake, 1-800-248-PORT, indicate strong RVer interest in their development. Over 300 campsites, in Lakemoor, Ill. are adjacent to water and close to the Chain of Lakes. The lot site is purchased for use whenever possible, no time restrictions. It's a planned community for a growing number of RVers who want it nice, and convenient to use, year 'round.

Nebraska Is For You

by BILL RADKE
Travel Editor

You can travel to Nebraska for a destination vacation, or just to tour. "We have a great deal more to offer than most folks suspect," Gov. Bob Kerry said. "Our highways crisscross a land rich in scenery and history. Take time to see Nebraska and discover its natural beauty."

To help, "Vacation Nebraska," is available, which outlines over a dozen mini trips.

We spent several days touring the Sandhills Country. It offers 18,000 square miles of uncluttered, unspoiled cattle land in the north central section. Nebraska, stemming from the Indian language, means 'Land of Moving Waters. Shallow beneath the sands, rock formations keep surface water flowing, the grass lush and provides habitat for birds and animals.

The sandhills are the heart of Nebraska's ranch and cowboy country, the home of its highest running waterfall and America's largest manmade forest. Using Grand Island, on the Platte River, just above I-80, as a beginning point, the tour can include forts, mines, rodeos, forests, streams and lakes. The Valentine Wildlife Refuge area, on the scenic Niobrara River, offers the finest bluff lined canoeing of the sector.

Write for "Vacation Nebraska" to Nebraska Travel and Tourism, Box 94666, Dept. 85124, Lincoln, Neb. 68509, or phone 1-800-228-4307.

B 'N B! What A Way To Go!

There's no trick to it; Europeans have been doing it for years and Americans are finally catching on. Instead of glitzy hotels and plastic motels, they're staying at "bread and breakfast" establishments. They're also exchanging homes, staying on farms and in youth hostels and taking advantage of empty rooms in college dorms.

In a Report to Consumers in the May Reader's Digest, Patricia Wilson, founder of the American Bed and Breakfast Assn., says "It's the most significant travel development in years. People not only can save money, they find it more homelike than commercial lodgings."

Accommodations can be quite luxurious or of the bathroom-down-the-hall variety. Bed and Breakfast U.S.A. describes more than 600 places to stay and lists reservation services that can book an additional 10,000 homes. The article reports, "For $30 to $85 a night, double, people can stay in lodgings that range from Victorian mansions to houseboats."

For those who miss (or who have never experienced) country life, there is a directory-Farm, Ranch and Country Vacations-which lists over 200 places where people can help with the chores, ride horses and stroll country lanes.

You don't have to be young to qualify for youth hostels; all you have to do is join American Youth Hostels.

Hostels tend to be spartan, but lodging averages $5.50 a night, so it may be worth your while.

There is no central booking service but if a campus setting appeals to you, contact colleges en route to or at your destination.

County Now Has Model System

State's Attorney Fred L. Foreman has announced that Lake County now has a model system for the management of child sexual abuse cases which is designed to assist victims and to expedite and coordinate the manner in which cases are handled by mandated reports, medical examiners, investigators, state's attorneys and treatment professionals.

The model system developed by an interdisciplinary task force of professionals and lay persons provides for a consistent court process and treatment for victims and other family members. One of the most significant steps being taken to implement this model is the extensive training being offered to target professional groups who work with child sexual abuse cases. This training will help ensure that the model is understood and that cases are handled in a manner which enhances the prosecution process and concomitantly reduces stress on victims. It offers professionals the opportunity to develop intervention skills in interviewing and/or treating perpetrators, victims and family members.

The model was developed by the Lake County Sexual Abuse Task Force initiated by Lake County State's Attorney Fred Foreman and coordinated by Fred Foreman; Ginny Fagen, AB/C Council Coordinator and Diane Breske, Illinois Dept. of Children and Family Services (DCFS). Members of the task force include interested citizens, hospital personnel, investigators, assistant state's attorneys, mental health professionals, public school personnel and representatives of the clergy. The training seminars have been planned by the task force in conjunction with the College of Lake County.

The first training seminar in May was for medical and health professionals.

Good Time To Refinance Fixed Rate Mortgages

(First of two articles on mortgage refinancing.)

With home-loan rates at the lowest level in more than five years, smart borrowers are flocking to lenders and making deals to refinance their homes.

Nearly one of every four mortgages made nationwide in recent months was a refinanced home loan, reports the Mortgage Bankers Assn. of America (MBA). In 1984, refinancing accounted for one of every five mortgage originations.

Experts said refinancing volume is expected to increase even more now that interest rates are declining.

The Meyers Report

Economic forecaster Gary S. Meyers has been a lecturer and consultant to major financial institutions, government analysts, real estate developers and daily newspapers throughout the nation for the past 16 years. Readers are invited to submit comments and questions for possible use as subjects for future columns. Write Gary S. Meyers & Associates, 2200 S. Main St., Suite 106, Lombard, Ill. 60148.

"Many homeowners apparently are taking advantage of current market conditions to reduce their monthly mortgage payments," said Warren Lasko, executive vice president of the MBA.

"Right now may be a good time for many homeowners to refinance, as long as they can get a loan with a rate two or three points below the mortgage they currently hold," Lasko said.

Lenders told The Meyers Report that the vast majority of borrowers are refinancing with fixed-rate loans for terms of 15 or 30 years.

Traditionally, homeowners have refinanced their properties to obtain cash for various personal uses, including payment of second mortgages, other debts, divorce settlements, remodeling or investments.

But in recent years the motivation more often has been to reduce monthly mortgage payments by exchanging high-cost loans for those with lower rates.

Now, experts say, there is another reason. Some borrowers are refinancing to escape the financial burden and emotional fears and uncertainty of adjustable-rate mortgages—especially those without rate ceilings, or caps.

Lenders estimate that about half of the refinancing volume this year involves homeowners switching from ARMS to fixed-rate loans. Many of these borrowers are those who were lured by the so-called bargain of discounted ARMS with deferred interest.

"When ARM borrowers see their loan payments going up while market rates are going down, they want out," a mortgage banker told The Meyers Report.

However, lenders said many borrowers are still holding back in the belief that rates haven't quite reached bottom. If you are planning to refinance your home, The Meyers Report advises you not to wait too long. You might miss out.

Lenders have varying policies about guaranteeing rates and points on refinanced mortgages. However, with rates going down, they tend to be more liberal, and currently rate commitments of 60 days are commonplace.

Not everyone should refinance. In order to recover the costs associated with refinancing, homeowners should get their mortgage rate reduced at least two percentage points and plan to stay in their home at least three or four more years.

Refinancing charges, including lender fees and processing costs, average from 3 to 5 percent of the loan amount, depending on whether the new mortgage is conventional or government insured.

Up-front costs on a $50,000 refinance would range from $1,500 to $2,500. If you were refinancing an existing 14.5 percent mortgage, for example, for a new loan at 12.5 percent, it would take two to three years just to recover that amount through savings from lower monthly payments.

Often, borrowers won't have to dig into their pockets to cover these refinancing costs. Lenders usually will add the refinance charges to the new loan, as long as it doesn't exceed 85 percent of your home's value for a government-insured loan, or 90 percent for a conventional loan.

Lasko predicted relatively steady refinancing activity through the second quarter of this year.

"Between now and summer, mortgage rates should continue to decline somewhat, perhaps to the 12.25 percent level for fixed-rate loans," Lasko predicted. "Rates on adjustable mortgages can be expected to be in the 10.5 to 11 percent range."

"The combination of slowed economic growth and Congressional pressure to lower the federal deficit is keeping mortgage rates lower than we otherwise would have expected," he said.

NEXT WEEK AT A GLANCE: Nationwide, the average interest rates on conventional 30-year mortgages with 20 percent down payments declined slightly to 12.27 percent from 12.48 percent a week earlier. The prime rate stands at 10.00 percent.

ti, M.D., the medical staff; Darlene Leonard of Gurnee, the hospital's auxiliary; Joe Shirk of Lindenhurst, the hospital's volunteers and Sue Hegland, director of the Personnel Dept. A reception was held at the Premier Bank of Vernon Hills.

The one-story structure, designed by O'Donnell Wicklund Pigozzi Architects, Inc. of Northbrook, features exterior design elements similar to those used in the main hospital in Libertyville.

In addition to an Immediate Care Center based in the new complex with its complement of radiological and laboratory services, there will also be offices housing primary care physicians, dentists and specialists. A Fitness Testing Center providing fitness evaluation services will be complemented by a Nutrition and Weight Control Center. The hospital's Department of Physical Medicine/Therapy will perform all out-patient therapy in the Orthopedic Rehabilitation Center.

DON DEUSTER

If your license is revoked for drunk driving, how do you get it reinstated?

You request a hearing before the Illinois Secretary of State at which you must present a current alcohol assessment, proof of attendance at a remedial education course, and evidence that you will not be a risk to public safety.

If you do business as a corporation, may you sue debtors in the small claims court?

Yes, but a corporate plaintiff must be represented by an attorney since the small claims court was established to enable individual citizens to handle their own cases.

If your landlord sues you on your lease, must you pay his attorneys fees and court costs?

Probably. The standard lease form obligates the tenant to pay reasonable attorneys fees and costs if the lease needs to be enforced in court.

Ram Goalie To Attend Russian Hockey Camp

by PETER GILL

Noah Seidenberg will be traveling to a foreign land again this summer, but his latest trip will be more than just another vacation.

The 16-year-old Grayslake High School student will be attending a summer hockey camp in Russia. Seidenberg will be a junior at the high school in the fall. He was the Ram's goalie this past season and has voiced a concern about the future of the hockey team at his school in the future.

But for now, the camp is on the teen's mind. He is excited about traveling, and is determined to learn more about hockey before he comes back.

He has also got some goals set for high school hockey.

"I'd like to make all-conference next year," he said. "Hopefully senior year I will get the lowest goals-against average (in the conference)."

Seidenberg talks like a person who knows what he would like to do with his future. He is determined to become a better hockey goalie, and said that after high school he would like to play for the University of Michigan. But academics come more into play there.

"If I'm not able to play hockey," he said, "I would study law."

For now Seidenberg is sticking to hockey. During the summer months, he plays street hockey with his friends. They do not go overboard with dedication to the sport, they simply enjoy it.

Seidenberg also plays football and tennis at Grayslake High.

The football season overlaps the beginning of hockey by a week or two, but he said that the first couple of weeks of practice are simply for the skaters to get into shape. Those on the football team are already in shape and ready to skate after the last football game.

Seidenberg is an offensive lineman and defensive lineman in football, in tennis he plays doubles.

Travel is nothing new to the Ram goalie. He has already been to both the east and west coasts of this country and has been to England, France and Belgium as well as Jamaica five times.

But Russia is a place that he has never seen or been to.

His touring will be combined with hockey just like everything else over there. Besides having daily practices and scrimmages, the boys will travel around and play different teams.

The man that will go with them is a Canadian by the name of Brian Proctor. He is also a former NHL player.

Seidenberg will be one week late in coming back to school in the fall where he said he will find out who the new hockey coach will be. According to Seidenberg, last year's hockey coach, Don Lama is expected to retire.

The players were chosen more on a first come-first serve basis. Seidenberg saw the advertisement in a magazine called Hockey News and decided right away that he was going to apply. He needed a written statement from his coach and a reference from a teacher.

After that Seidenberg only needed to wait. He was one of the earliest applicants and will be joining 33 others, about half of them Americans, for the camp. Four goalies are included in that number.

State To Give Away Blinds

Persons will register at Chain O'Lakes State Park, Oak Point Day Use Area on the south side of Rte. 173. More than 200 sailboats are expected to participate in the annual Waukegan Sailboat race, scheduled for Saturday, June 22.

Sponsored by the Waukegan Yacht Club, the race has been going on for many years, according to Publicity Director Steve Ames.

The race will have all sorts of different categories with boats ranging in size from 20-foot to 60-foot. They are to start in the morning and expected to finish right off of the lighthouse at about 2 p.m.

"It will be some sight seeing all of those boats out there," Ames said. After the race the boats will be on display in the harbor for the public to look at, he added.

Salmon-A-Rama

Johnson Outboards has announced plans to sponsor the 10th annual Salmon-A-Rama, July 13 - 21, in Racine, Wis. Billed as "The Big One," the Salmon-A-Rama is Lake Michigan's largest fishing tournament.

"We are pleased to be a sponsor of the 1985 Salmon-A-Rama," commented Ben Sherwood, Manager, Johnson Outboards. "This worthwhile non-profit event contributes greatly to the preservation of fish in Lake Michigan."

Organized in 1974 to restock fish, clean up the waterfront, and promote an interest in Lake Michigan recreational sport fishing, the Salmon-A-Rama attracts over 6,000 fishermen and 250,000 spectators annually.

Johnson Outboards will donate two 15 hp outboards for the grand prizes in the lakers and rainbow categories. Total cash and prizes for the 1985 Salmon-A-Rama will exceed $150,000.

The Benedictine Eagles will play a 10-game schedule in NCAA Division III.

Palatine And Richmond Pace Shoreline League

The Palatine Redskins and the Richmond Transportation Travelers from Lake Forest are tied for first place after a week of rain and double-headers.

The first set of games for the week, scheduled for June 11, were postponed because of the rain. Richmond got their first loss on June 13, falling to the Waukegan Golden Eagles 12-4. Palatine kept pace with the Travelers by beating Highland Park 13-1.

North Chicago had a bye on June 13, and the Zion Dill Brothers beat the Gurnee American Legion Indians by a 6-0 score.

On June 16, Richmond bounced back to sweep a double-header from Highland Park, 5-2 and 10-0. The same day Palatine had little trouble with Waukegan, taking a twin bill 8-4 and 7-3.

North Chicago was scheduled to play at Zion on June 16, but the game was postponed. It was rescheduled for Thursday, June 20.

After those games, Richmond and Palatine each led the league with 4-1 records, Zion was close behind at 2-1 and Waukegan was at 3-2.

The North Chicago Cardinals were 0-2, Gurnee was 0-3 and Highland Park was at 0-3.

Dydo To Attend Augustana

Mike Dydo, a recent graduate of Antioch Community High School, will enroll at Augustana College in the fall of 1985 and will be a member of the school's football team.

Dydo, 5'7, 185, earned two varsity letters as a fullback at Antioch. He also was a two-year letterwinner as a third baseman/catcher on the baseball team.

At Augustana Dydo will join a program which is coming off two straight NCAA Division III national championship seasons. The Vikings have captured the last four College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin football titles and currently have an NCAA Division III record of 24 straight wins.

Receives Letter

Alan Gainer, a former Wauconda High School athlete, was one of 23 baseball players to receive a letter from Western Michigan University. Gainer, a junior pitcher, had a win/loss record of 1-6. He played in 12 games, pitching 41 innings and striking out 25. His final earned run average for the season was 4.83.

Gridders, Coach Eye Big Game

Four football players from area high schools along with one coach will be participants in the annual North-South High School All-Star Football Game.

Representing Mundelein will be defensive back Andy Mabe and linebacker Dave Wings. For Warren, defensive end Don Nelson and defensive back Paul Thomas will play. All of the players will be playing for the north team.

Football Coach Steve Wapon from Antioch will be one of the defensive coaches for the north squad.

The game will be played on Saturday, June 22 at North Central College in

Cancer Vaccine For Cats Offered At Vets

by CHARLENE WHITNEY

In the U.S. cat population (about 50 million), feline leukemia is fairly prevalent and a most serious disease. About four percent of the cats that go into a veterinary hospital will carry the virus in their blood. Cats that don't have a successful defense in their system are doomed. Cats that live outdoors or are exposed to large numbers of other cats are good candidates for getting this disease.

Now there is a new vaccine against feline leukemia virus. The product, Leukocell is now being sold to veterinarians. This is the first time to vaccinate a mammal against a form of cancer. For cat owners, there is at last a preventative for feline leukemia. However, it will cost you more than most vaccines. The cost to veterinarians will be three to four times more than that of other vaccines because of the company's high research bill over a period of ten years. The State of Ohio spent $100 a year for ten years to find the answer. A first year of a three-shot round of vaccine will cost you about $50.

It was only eight years ago that canine parvovirus turned up in the U.S. in near epidemic proportions. Shortly after, a vaccine was developed. Transmitting the disease was done with one dog's urine or sociable contact with saliva. Dogs were dying from Parvo.

The feline leukemia vaccine took longer to discover than any other vaccine. Cats can transmit the disease by sociable contact, mother's milk, cat's urine or the saliva in grooming. Cats with the leukemia symptoms would often suffer from any number of related conditions. This included types of cancerous tumors. However, the actual cause of death for many cats would be respiratory infection.

Pet-Wise

We had a wonderful pet by the name of Fluffy. She died of feline leukemia six years ago though we spent hundreds of dollars trying to save her and the vet did everything that he possibly could. I say to you who love your pets, this vaccine is worth the price. I would have done anything if only she could have been saved. You never know when leukemia will strike. Get the vaccine and keep it up to date. Your pet is worth it isn't it?

In 1983, dog and cat lovers throughout the world spent an estimated $48 million to vaccinate their pets against diseases. Thanks to our science, medical world and veterinarians, our pets can live longer, healthier and happier lives. Your pet will give you all his love in return.

Return As Important As Serve In Tennis

by CELESTE PREGRACKE

In order of importance, returning the serve ranks right up there with the serve. There is no game without either of them.

To prepare for the serve, (assuming you are both right handed), position yourself closer to the singles line, but adjust for the type of server. You may have to move back if they serve extremely hard; closer if they serve soft, or to the left or right. Also try to outmaneuver the server by moving from the spot where you would normally wait.

While waiting for the serve, keep in motion. If your legs are rigid, knees straight, heels flat on the ground, then you can't make that quick move into the return. While in motion your eyes are focused on the ball. Follow it into the air. This can help you react the instant your opponent hits it. This will also help in reading the toss. This is not easy, but eventually this can help you anticipate the type of serve.

Try to turn your shoulders (upper body) and step into the ball.

Most people serve the second ball slower.

Move in closer in anticipation of attacking that ball.

Do not backswing if you don't have time. If the serve is very fast you may find yourself literally blocking or punching the ball as a volley.

If the serve allows you time - attack. Be aggressive.

Vary your returns if you can.

If your opponent serves a high kicker, prepare with your racket higher to enable you to slice down easier.

Tennis Tips

If the opponent serves fast, prepare with keeping your racket lower.

Get various practice partners. Have them serve to you to give you return practice. During this practice work on all possible returns, angles, depth, speed and spin.

Hunters Look To Local Show

The All-Midwest Hunting and Outdoor Show has been scheduled for Aug. 29 to Sept. 2 at the Lake County Fairgrounds.

The show is sponsored by the same people who produced the Chicagoland Sport, Fishing, Travel and Outdoors Show. It is designed to help you more fully enjoy your hunting and outdoor activities.

Attractions at the five-day event include exhibits of sporting arms, black powder, archery equipment, decoys and collectibles, hunting dogs and accessories, taxidermy services, game birds and accessories and more.

Also in the show will be demonstrations on gun dog training, duck calling, trap shooting, and falconry.

Signs Letter

Pete Dodich, a Warren High School graduate, has signed a letter of content to play at Winona State University in Minnesota this fall. Dodich, a basketball player at CLC this past season, has come to a scholarship agreement with the school. The 6'4 forward averaged 15 points and nine rebounds for CLC in his last season.

Ski Club Plans Summer Jump

On June 23, the Norge Ski Club will hold its first "summer" Ski Jumping Tournament in Fox River Grove.

Southern War Hatred Sparked GOP Heritage

by JOHN STEINKE

"The Lake County Boys in Blue" had a praiseworthy record in the Civil War (1861-1865), as measured not only in brave deeds but also by the grim figures in battle deaths. In 1860, Lake County's census population was 18,257. During the war years, 1,890 Lake Countians served in the military and 291 soldiers died in the conflict. Fully one-sixth of the soldiers from Lake County were never to return to the small farms and quiet villages of their Midwestern homeland.

A Civil War epitaph on a grave marker pays an elegant tribute to the Lake County kids, who died in the service of their country.

Steinke On Politics

It reads: "He had gone on the last march to the land where nevermore shall bugle sound reveille or the dreadful cannon roar. He who dies for country dies not, but lives forevermore."

The passions of the Civil War and the hatred of the Southern Confederacy were summarized in a letter by Edward B. Payne to his parents after his younger brother had been killed in action. The Payne brothers were members of the 37th Illinois Infantry, which was known as the Fremont Rifles. Union Corporal Frederick A. Payne, 23, of Fremont Twp., died from wounds in a skirmish near Pea Ridge, Ark., on March 12, 1862.

Payne wrote his parents: "I have been sitting for a half hour with my pen in my fingers powerless to write you. Mother, father, we have had a great battle. We have fought for two days and have at last come off victorious, but of the result, how can I tell you, but I must. You now have one son left in the army. Fred, poor Fred is gone. He died upon the battlefield fighting bravely as a man...can only fight...My soul is on fire for revenge. I have partially revenged him, but if I could kill a thousand rebels every day for 10 years it would not do it. I am desperate now I kill every rebel I see..." (On March 13, 1865, President Abraham Lincoln promoted Edward Payne to brigadier general. Payne was the first Lake County soldier to attain that rank.)

So far as political parties were concerned, the war's main effect was to destroy the remnants of the Democratic party and confirmed the Republican dominance in Lake County. The Republicans, associated as they were with the Lincoln administration, had the benefit of both federal patronage and the union propaganda. The GOP possessed a powerful party organization supported by a fiercely partisan press.

The Waukegan Weekly Gazette endorsed Lincoln's war policies and supported the President's 1864 reelection campaign. It eulogized the Republican party and castigated the copperheads or antiwar Democrats. In 1864, the Waukegan Weekly Gazette editorialized: "The draft from Lake County has been made and as a consequence a good many copperheads have been hit...Few of these men will come back Democrats, as the army is a great abolitionizer." In another editorial, the newspaper admonished its readership: "Ask yourself...How shall we place ourselves on God's side?...VOTE FOR LINCOLN AND JOHNSON!"

Thus, the Republican proclivities of Lake Countians date back to the Civil War crisis. By the 1850's, the Lake County electorate was basically northern, white, protestant, native-born, middle class and Republican. The Civil War forms the bedrock of Lake County politics in the 20th century. Between the 1850's and 1984, few Lake Countians deviated from the political convictions created by that great national crisis. The emotions induced by that conflict had as much to do with the votes cast in the 1984 presidential election as the Great Depression or the county's suburbanization.

Next week, we will see how the Grand Army of the Republic (G.A.R.) was an extension of the Lake County Republican party.

Neighbor Night

A summer-time meet your neighbor night for area residents aged 55 and above will be held at 6 p.m. on Friday, June 21, at the following locations: Waukegan Focal Point for Senior Services; Zion Senior Center; St. Lawrence's Episcopal Church, 125 Church St., Libertyville and at the Calvary Temple Christian Center, 134 W. Monaville Rd., Lake Villa. Those desiring to attend the get-together are requested to contact their nearest Focal Point or senior center for reservations.

Slate Program

Missing children have become a serious and tragic problem throughout the United States and the growing awareness of this problem has inspired the development of a complete identification tool for parents to use if their children should become missing--the "IdentiChild" program, which is coming to this area from noon to 4 p.m. on Saturday, June 22, at Center Court in Lakehurst Mall.

Through this program, which is being done in cooperation with American National Bank of Waukegan, Victory Memorial Hospital and Waukegan Police Dept., children will undergo a complete identification procedure providing parents with a combination photo / fingerprints / information package.

All parents are invited to take advantage of this program. For the free IdentiChild package, bring your child to Lakehurst Mall's Center Court between noon and 4 p.m. on Saturday, June 22. Lakehurst is located at Belvidere Rd. (Rte. 120) and Waukegan Rd. (Rte. 43) in Waukegan.

Completes

Pvt. Kenneth A. Stoinski, son of Robert J. and Linda R. Stoinski of 25407 W. Park Ct., Lake Villa, has completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

To Participate In Concert

When Barry Manilow comes to Poplar Creek on June 27, 15 girls from Carmel High School for Girls, Mundelein, will be dancing across the stage with him. Contacted by Manilow's road manager, Bruce Weinstein, the school agreed to select 15 girls to perform with Manilow during this concert appearance.

Ms. Tina Cosentino, faculty advisor for the cheerleading and pom-pom squads, was given guidelines for selecting the dancers by the Manilow tour group. Those selected will perform at the beginning of the second act on each of the three nights of Manilow's performances.

Participating in the shows will be the following girls:

Julie Carpenter, Antioch; Caroleen Cea, Buffalo Grove; Diana Dettmann, Wauconda; Jackie Howell, Mundelein; Dona Keller, Wildwood; Lori Klimatis, Libertyville; Gia Syracuse, Long Grove; Barb Vejvoda, Lake Villa; Sue Migely, Arlington Heights; Kathy Poulos, Waukegan; Diana Powell, Round Lake Beach; Karen Schroeder, Ingleside; Monique Sharifi, Waukegan; Nancy Stasko, Lake Zurich and Paula Thomas, Libertyville.

Gas

Average gasoline prices in Illinois are only slightly higher than one month ago, but northern Indiana prices rose sharply in the wake of a tax increase; the AAA-Chicago Motor Club's latest fuel gauge report showed prices generally increasing during May, the fourth consecutive month of increases.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE BY SALOME

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Your personal need for independence is conditioned by the needs of someone close to you. Be a little more giving and you'll get a lot more back in return. Stay cool.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) You can take some time off without feeling guilty. Pushing yourself harder won't make the work easier. You need breathing space. Don't let anyone deter you from plans.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Keep your distance from those who are likely to cause problems for you and old friends. You can't claim innocence if you willingly enter into unpleasant pacts.

Cancer (June 21-July 22) Your past reluctance to apologize to an old friend should be reconsidered. Determination is laudable; stubbornness is lamentable. Be guided by your good instincts.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) Summer heat is no excuse for getting hot under the collar even with difficult people. Relax. Cool off. Conditions causing problems will soon change. Take time for fun.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Fussy Gusses and Gussies may miss the more important aspects of this period. Looking for the flaws can keep you from finding the joys up above. Raise your sights.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Continue to stretch that imagination. What you "will" can often become reality. Don't fret. You'll attract supporters. After all, everyone wants to be with a winner.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Creating problems for others seems to be the lot of that pesky person in your life. Best advice now is to stay away. Someone else will make changes you can live with.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Summertime can become summer-time if you don't straighten out that personal situation. Forget ego. Before he or she goes for good, make the first move forward.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) The rewards of patience come soon. Continue to keep in mind that thinking before jumping means the Sea Goat will avoid being battered by a premature butting.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Calling on old rivals will create new allies. They're flattered and eager to help. Do as much as possible to prove your sincerity. A show of gratitude follows.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Take the plunge without taking the bait. Make your own choice about where and when you're going to invest your time. Weigh the odds; pick those in your favor. © 1985, The McNaught Syndicate, Inc.
